

What's In A Song

© 1992 Lucy Picco Simpson

Chorus

What's in a song that helps me to heal? And why can a song al-low me to feel? Oh I can't exp-lain the joy or the tears, 'Though I've been a sing-er for years. There are times when the folks are ha-ving a ball And the drinks and the jokes could fill up a hall, But give me a song, a cho-rus or more, and that's when I'm like-ly to soar.

Verse

- 1) There are times when the folks are having a ball
And the drinks and the jokes could fill up a hall
But give me a song, a chorus, or more
And that's when I'm likely to soar.
Oh they say there is nothing like having a feast
To bring folks close together from north, south, west, east
But give us a song when the feasting is done
And that's when the many are one... Oh...
- 2) There's a time and a place for sorrow and woe
When the pain and the tears are expected to flow
But give me a song and voices close by
And that's when I'm likely to cry
There've been times when my heart has wanted to weep
But the pain and the tears were buried too deep
Then out of the blue in a roomful of song
The locked-inside feeling was gone...Oh..
- 3) There are places where pleasure is wrapped up and sold
And you purchase a moment with silver and gold
But the pleasure of singing's a blessing to me
'Cause I know it by heart and it's free
Oh, the times I remember and cherish so much
When we reach with our voices – it's almost like touch
And we pull in the circle and banish our fears
And we try to keep singing for years...Oh...